Portfolio for approved Self Directed Study or Clinical Practicum

The following represents the requirements for an independent or self directed study either qualifying for coursework in PT7990 and/or PT8850. At the minimum, the student should include the following components in the portfolio

- Description of the learning objectives and the outcome measurements to the achievement of these objectives. These objectives and outcomes must be approved by the student's advisor prior to course registration
- Provide evidence of advanced learning and/or practice. (case studies, papers, presentations, peer reviews)
- The coursework should represent a minimum of 80 hours of preparation, study and/or clinical practice.
- Student reflection
 - Description of the learning experiences; or scope of practice
 - Influence of specific learning experiences on professional practice and the development of expertise in practice.
 - Additional plans to further integrate this advanced learning

The portfolio will be reviewed by the student's course advisor. The advisor may suggest revisions to the portfolio. The course advisor will submit a grade for the students once portfolio is complete.
